College Budget Committee

Preamble:

The budget committee is important committee of the college. The budgets of the college is necessary to highlight the financial implications of various plans, to define resources required to achieve goals. A budget prepared by the institution/college considers the for long term and short term objective and costs that take in a financial year.

Objective:

- To put attention to economic growth of institution and stability and reallocation from public and government resources.
- Make provisions according to vision and mission of the college budget
- Plan to set the budget as per the necessity of the office, teaching departments, library and sports and various committees of the college time to time.

Composition of budget committee:

- 1) Chairperson – Head of institution (Principal)
- 2) Convener – One Teacher Nominated by Principal
- 3) Members – Four members Nominated by principal.
(Two Teaching and Two Non-teaching staff)

Strategy (Work plan of committee):

First of all, demand of the yearly budget expenditure from heads of the teaching departments, library, sports, office and conveners of various committees working in college in the prescribed format. Then collection of information about source of income, various grants issued by the Maharashtra/Central Governments, UGC, RUSA and University, Donation from alumni, well-wishers of college, parent institution and other agencies is done. Then the meeting of the budget committee is connived and elaborate discussion on income and expenditure and comparison with previous year budget with increase by 10% of the last budget is done to prepare the budget of upcoming financial year. Put it before College Development Committee (CDC) for the approval and put the budget in the Board of directors meeting (Governing Council) for the approval of said budget and implement it in the financial year.
